Don't Miss Out...

NASP WEBINAR!

Accelerated Investigation Program

Speaker:

Matt Werbel, Methfessel & Werbel, PC

Mr. Werbel joined the firm following a successful clerkship with the Honorable Edward W. Beglin, Jr., Assignment Judge for the Superior Court in Union County. Mr. Werbel presently represents insurance carriers, insureds, and self-insureds in the investigation and defense of both first and third-party claims. Attorney Werbel handles cases in many disciplines, including environmental, subrogation, fraud, first and third party coverage, and liability. Mr. Werbel has also presented many seminars on topics to include Subrogation, Bad Faith, Unfair Claims & Settlement Practices Act, Mold Exposures, Additional Insurance Obligations, Staged First Party Claims, Application Fraud, Collapse and Duty to Defect Negligent and Intentional Torts.

Topic Description:

Mr. Werbel will explain the "A.I.P.", describe what types of claims best qualify; the economic benefits of outsourcing to a law firm to handle the case; investigative cost benefits; preservation of the scene and evidence; the assignment of the origin & cause investigators and specialized engineers; and how the proper A.I.P. would protect the carrier and the insured from a liability exposure.
