

Leslie Wiernik – Bio

Leslie is the current Director of Education and past president of the National Association of Subrogation Professionals (NASP). She has more than 27 years of experience in the insurance, subrogation and legal industries. Leslie was the national subrogation manager for Crum & Forster Insurance and has worked in multi-line claims for both personal and commercial lines carriers. She holds a paralegal degree, specializing in insurance litigation, and she was instrumental in creating subrogation initiatives and client development strategies for several subrogation companies. Leslie recently addressed an OH House committee to explain the benefits of subrogation on proposed legislation that would have restricted contractual subrogation rights.

She has spoken at many insurance conferences in the U.S. and the U.K. and has conducted numerous training classes for carriers and risk managers on the benefits of subrogation.
